

OLYMPIC RUINS. A portion of the huge balcony of the South Broad street athletic club, showing how it was ruined during the fire of early today.

FIRST PICTURE OF CARDINAL DOUGHERTY IN ROME. The photograph was made in the Vatican on March 9 by Cavalier G. Felici, the papal photographer, and is the first to arrive in this country showing the ceremonies attending Archbishop Dougherty's elevation to the cardinalate. He is shown on his way to Consistory Hall to get the red biretta at the hands of the Pope. The gentleman in court dress and sword is Cavalier Lauri; beside Cardinal Dougherty is Monsignore Dante, one of the masters of ceremonies. Father Whitaker is in the group, next to the last on the right.

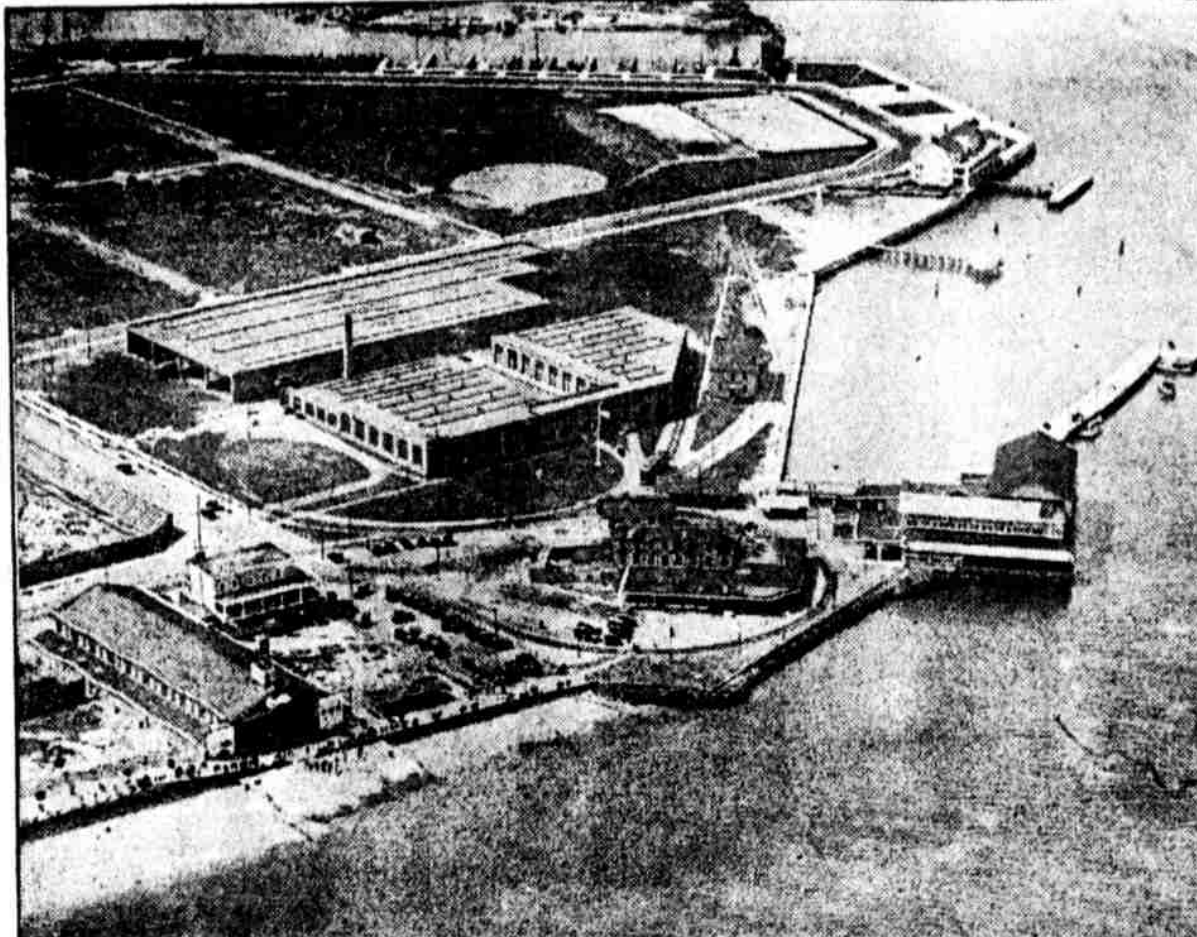

AFTER SIXTY-DAY VOYAGE. Mrs. E. R. Pottle, wife of the American consul at Bilbao, Spain, and her daughter, Edith. They arrived yesterday on the American freighter, Santa Clara.

PRAYING AT MOUNT JOY PRISON IN DUBLIN. Mrs. Maude Genne McBride (center) is the mother of one of the six Sinn Féin prisoners recently put to death. At the right is Mrs. Maude Genne McBride.

MRS. C. S. BROWN, WITH HER DOG. Attend the field trials of the English Setter Club of America, at Medford, N. J.

INLET, ATLANTIC CITY. This wonderful view was taken from the Ledger newsplane. At the lower right corner is the Inlet House, the Pavilion and the yacht pier. The Atlantic City Yacht Club grounds are above at the right. In the center of the photograph are the car barns of the Atlantic City Railroad Company. At the left is the ball park.

AT THE YEARLY MEETING. One of the Philadelphia Orthodox Friends, as she left the meeting yesterday afternoon.

MRS. 'FIFI' POTTER STILLMAN, wife of James A. Stillman, the New York banker, posed at Lakewood, N. J.

MISS MARY WINSOR discusses dress reform for men in an interview on the Editorial Page.

SHE'S THE 'GYM' INSTRUCTOR. Miss Marguerite Brinton going over an apparatus at the Friends Select School.

ACME MULTIGRAPHING AND ADDRESSING CO. Thirteenth and Arch streets, furnished today's limerick jury. They are, left to right: Mrs. Mabel Wade, Lillian Fritz, Lillian Silva, Fanny Silverthorn, Marie Lellex, Elsie Gloeckner, Mary Savastano, Veronica M. Brinkman, Marie Phillips, Florence Millef, and Marie Phillips.

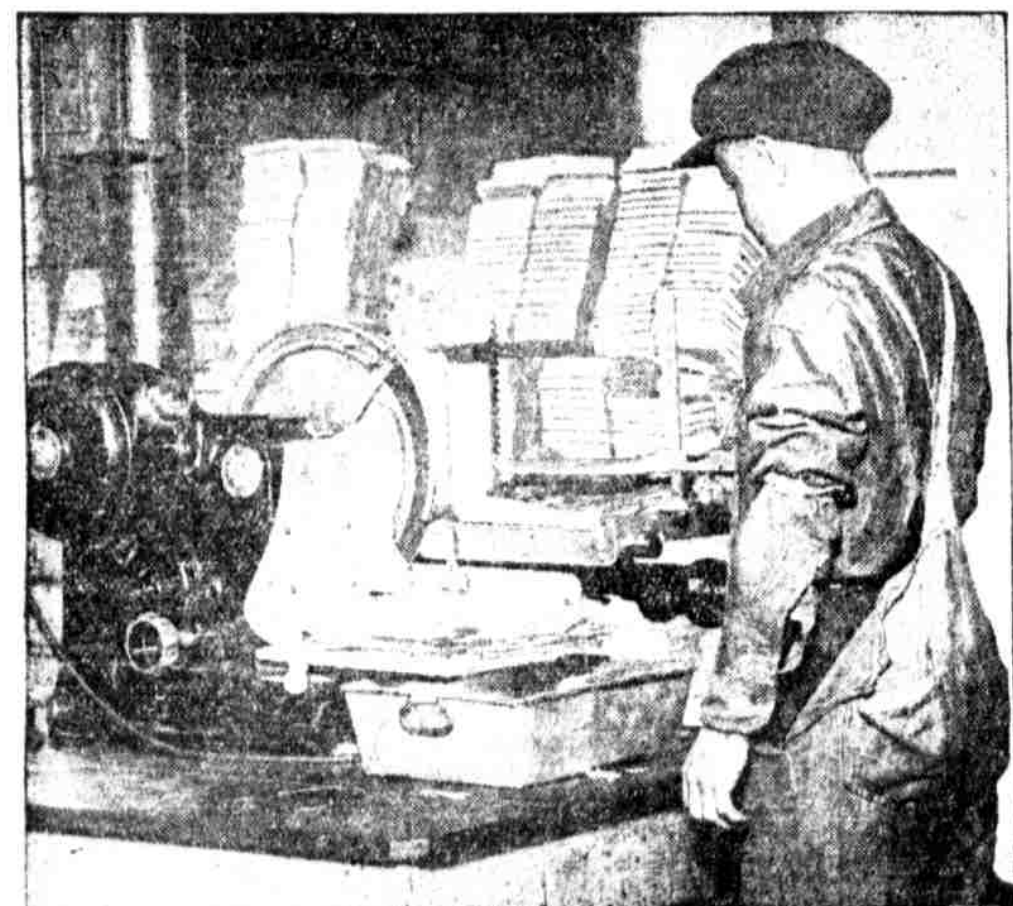

ARRIVALS IN WASHINGTON. Mrs. John L. Cable, wife of the new congressman from Lima, Ohio, and their daughter, Olive Mabel Cable.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR. He is Edward C. Finney, of Kansas.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

SLICING BACON. The operator of the electric cutting machine is Daniel Scott, 1239 South Napa street. He is at work in Wilson Martin Co.'s plant at Thirty-sixth street and Grays Ferry avenue.

WATCHED BY THOUSANDS. Dan Brown, painting the flagpole on the Drexel Building. The heavy winds of yesterday afternoon forced him to quit.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN ALBERT P. JAKEMEIT, of Seventh and Market streets. He has been associated with the police department for eighteen years, spending six years of that time at his present post. Jakemeit is forty-eight years old and lives at 1221 North Tenth street.

COMMANDING TROOPS AT DUSSELDORF. The French and British forces now on the Rhine, guarding the three cities taken over by the allied forces, are in command of General Gaucher, of the French forces (left), and General Morland, of the British.

COMMANDING TROOPS AT DUSSELDORF. The French and British forces now on the Rhine, guarding the three cities taken over by the allied forces, are in command of General Gaucher, of the French forces (left), and General Morland, of the British.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS BEATRICE SILVERMAN 309 Cross street Philadelphia.